Homework 12

Further develop the anchor program you started in the last homework

1. Add a function to allow the balance to be updated in steps of 100 up to a maximum of 1000.
2. If you try to update the balance when it is at its maximum value, throw a custom error with an appropriate error message.
3. What constraints should your program have ?